CONVERSATIONS WITH KENNY

Do you feel like you're not in a great place and not moving forward?

Do you feel like you are in a great place and could be in a better place, and not moving forward?

Maybe you'd just like to move towards something new and fresh?

‘Conversations with Kenny’ is a program that's all about you, for you, and will finally have you moving forward.

Your Situation?

Do you sometimes feel a bit stuck and find it hard to move forward from where you are right now? You know there are so many directions you could take, but you're not sure where to start, or you keep changing your mind about where to start? Have changes in your personal or business relationships, or circumstances, undermined your confidence about taking the next step? Are you happy to keep standing still, or is it now time for you to finally take hold of your future because you really do know that it's only you that can decide to do that? Who can you, and more importantly, who should you turn to for support and help? "Conversations with Kenny" is not a formulaic pre-set management book or set of theories that you can get off the shelf at a bookstore. It's about you, specifically you! That unique you that is so different to everyone else. Nobody else has had the exact past you've had, or is in the same place you are, or faces the same potential options or choices in front of you.

Conversations with Kenny Program Details

WHAT: Get ready to dive into Conversations with Kenny that will be both gentle and challenging. It will confirm and confront much of what you are currently thinking. These two-way conversations will generally take place over a period of approximately 8 to 12 weeks to fit in with your life and availability.

This approach is unlike the usual keynote speakers, podium lectures, standard forms and checklists, and management books that supposedly work for everybody. Instead, we will sometimes chat while we take walks and have chats over a milkshake, and we'll develop the plan that will help you move forward from your current circumstances. You will emerge with a refreshed energy about where to launch forth, with you more in charge of your future

WHERE: Some of the critical stages of the program, such as the initial chat, first planning session, implementation session, action review session, and handover phase, should preferably be held at Kenny's combined home/office/retreat in Ferny Creek in the Dandenong Ranges.

There will also be a need for numerous additional chats and meetings between the above sessions to achieve the targeted outcomes. It's preferred that they also be held in Ferny Creek, but given logistics and the realities of life, some of those can also be held by Zoom or where you are located.

HOW: This program is generally for individuals, but there may be situations where two or more people may wish to do it together, such as couples, partners, or teams. An appropriate fee and timeframe will be agreed upon in those circumstances.

TESTIMONIAL

"I have known Ken for 5 years. I have always been inspired to listen to Ken's point of view on many occasions as he has always been a good mentor and friend. Ken has a very different way of looking at life & work situations, and it has opened up my mind to think more laterally and decipher information with more awareness and gain greater knowledge in my own situations. He has a very honest approach to life and does not sugar coat his views except when we're enjoying a lovely cup of coffee and piece of cake LOL, and discussing many other interesting and psychological topics. Ken will always give you an honest answer, even if listening to his words makes it difficult to accept. When you go on this journey with Ken be willing to acknowledge your weaknesses and be willing to change the way you see things, so when you need to make difficult life decisions you can look at your problems/issues in a more holistic way and make better-informed decisions for your life." Charise Katz
